

NEUTRAL MAC eyeshadow in cork, £12. For stockists see www.maccosmetics.co.uk

TOOLS FOR AWESOME EYES

CATCH THE LIGHT Limited Collection liner in gunmetal, £4, Marks & Spencer

READY STEADY Revlon PhotoReady Eye Primer + Brightener, £9.99, Boots. The brush applicator makes blending over eyes a cinch - priming them for eyeshadow, which looked smooth and intense over the top.

HIGH DEFINITION Autograph eye liner in brown, £7.50, Marks & Spencer

● Maidstone-based Nicola Peen trained at the London College of Fashion where she did an HND in design fashion styling for hair and make-up. She has 13 years' experience in bridal make-up. For more information see www.weddingmakeupbynicola.co.uk or ring 07799 374265.

Professionally trained make-up artist Nicola Peen has some great tips for the blushing bride...

MAKE-UP NOT MASK
Bridal make-up should emphasise your natural assets
Picture by Ryan and Jo Photography

FAIR OF FACE

Fresh all day...

Q Should a bride keep products with her for touching up?

Nicola says: In most cases, if a bride's make-up has been applied well by a professional make-up artist then it should stay put all day and into the evening. The only products I would recommend you take with you on your wedding day for touch-ups would be lipstick as you will be drinking a lot with all the toasts. Also take some blotting papers or a pressed powder to eliminate any shine if you get a little warm on the dancefloor.

NICOLA'S LIPS LIST

- 1 Line the bride's lips with a lip liner as similar to the bride's own lip colour as possible, or a fairly nude shade.
- 2 For a long-lasting effect, fill in the lips with the lip liner first and then apply lipstick over the top and blot before applying lipstick again.
- 3 Finish off with a dot of lipgloss over the top.
- 4 Define the eyes or focus on the lips, never do both! If you have gone for smoky eyes or something quite dramatic then keep the lips neutral.

MWAH!
Marks & Spencer, Limited Collection lipstick in chiffon

